Much time and effort goes into forming the chamber music ensembles. Group formation begins in early May. This requires formal commitment on behalf of all participants involved. To guarantee your place, Institut Suzuki Montréal requires full payment as soon as candidates have been accepted to the Chamber Music Program for Strings, Pianists and Flautists or to the Edmonton-Montreal Exchange. No refunds will be given for withdrawals.

Fees enclosed (please check):

- Total fees. The full amount minus registration fee is refundable if student is not accepted to the program.
 Partial fees of $100 CAN deposit per participant (in addition to $50 registration fee). Balance is due upon acceptance to either program.

Please send a currently dated cheque or money order (Canadian funds) payable to :
Institut de l'éducation du talent 371 Lamoureux, Sainte-Julie, Québec, CANADA, J3E 1H1

Individual and group photos will be taken during Institut Suzuki Montreal . These photos may be used for publicity. If for any reason you do not wish to use individual photos of your child or yourself, please advise us.

I understand and accept that the organizers of Institut Suzuki Montréal bear no liability while my child attends activities organized in the context of Institut Suzuki Montréal. I take full responsibility for my child during his or her participation in activities at the Institut.
